The Process Safety and Risk Management Training Series brings together these powerful DVD-based training programs that will support Process Safety and Risk Management planning and implementation.

PREVENTING DISASTER LEARNING FROM LONGFORD

Professor Andrew Hopkins' analysis of the Esso Gas Plant explosion at Longford forms the basis of this workshop.

The 11 key contributory elements in the safety chain are examined, and flagged in a generic way so that participants can apply the same approach to their own organisations. This highly-interactive training program is suitable for management at all levels to allow participants to develop a detailed action plan of how to apply the "Lessons Learned".

Contents: The DVD contains two versions of the program:

- Interactive version with pauses for workshop activities.
- Linear version with no pauses.
- Also included on CD: PowerPoint presentation with embedded video clips, Facilitator's Guide, Running Sheet, Participants' Handouts, Reference Material & links to relevant websites.

Price: AUS$1350.00

CREATING A MINDFUL ORGANISATION

In this workshop, Professor Andrew Hopkins sets out to help management address the shortfalls of traditional organisational mindsets.

Organisational culture is one of the key reasons why companies fail to recognise the warning signs prior to workplace accidents. This interactive training workshop has been designed to give strategic decision makers including Safety Managers, management from middle to senior level, Plant Managers, and Risk Managers the tools to significantly improve management of OH&S Risk Systems.

Contents: The DVD contains 2 versions of the program:

- Interactive version with pauses for workshop activities.
- Linear version with no pauses.
- Also included on CD: PowerPoint presentation with embedded video clips, Facilitator's Guide, Participants' Handouts, Reference Material and links to relevant websites.

UNCLEAR & PRESENT DANGER - SITUATION AWARENESS AT EVERY LEVEL

Lack of Situation Awareness is attributed to more than 85% of human error accidents. Training can reduce the likelihood of injuries and death thereby increasing productivity and improving quality management.

Professor Rhona Flin, a prominent Situation Awareness authority, is featured in the training package. It uses a variety of real events, across a number of industries, to show what can happen when there is a lack of Situation Awareness.

Contents: A chaptered DVD, detailed, easy-to-use Trainer's Guide, PowerPoint presentation with video clips and Participants' Workbooks.

Price: AUS$995.00

RISK MAKER RISK TAKER

Training that fully integrates with the new ISO 31000:2009 - Risk Management Principles and Guidelines.

Real events and footage create this absorbing study of risk management. Through a range of actual industry examples where the management of risk has affected the business, the video demonstrates the seven specific steps essential to the risk management process. Interviews with Kevin W Knight (Chairman ISO Working group on Risk Management Standards) and Kimberly Turner (CEO Global Risk Alliance) weave these stories together and help communicate concepts central to the management of risk.

Contents: DVD, duration: 25 minutes plus CD containing Study Guide & PowerPoint presentation.

THE COMPLETE AUDITOR

This DVD helps improve auditors' skills and the effectiveness of auditing systems in safety, health, environment, quality and risk.

Chaptered into three modules, following each, auditors will be able to:

- Gain an insight into their personal attributes and audit behaviours.
- Identify specific desirable behaviours and dark-side traits that lead to success or failure.

- Use essential non-technical skills, including body language, questioning, listening and presenting.
- Incorporate the five key audit know-how components to achieve desired results.

Contents: Trainer's and self-study guide, workbook, and PowerPoint presentation of each module with embedded video clips.

Price: AUS$995.00

THE CLIMBERS ATTITUDE - DYNAMIC RISK ASSESSMENT

While seemingly a highly dangerous sport, rock climbers have relatively few accidents.

Their long-established safety record is based on a system of Dynamic Risk Assessments, which is also now being used industry (such as the UK Fire Service) to enable workers to identify and assess potential hazards on an almost minute-by-minute basis, rather than relying solely on formal risk assessments.

A two-part safety training DVD addressing vital topics, such as 'Teamwork', 'Dynamic Risk Assessment', 'Asking the "What If?" question' and 'Identifying hazards not covered by formal risk assessments'.
